

Dear Fellow Soldier:

My name is Eliot Rendleman, and I am the director of the Academic Center for Tutoring or ACT. I was also a soldier in the Army, serving 1991-1993, in the 6th Battalion 29th Field Artillery (deactivated). Our post was in Idar-Oberstein, Germany, near Baumholder. This was during Desert Storm. As the director of ACT and as a soldier, I want to welcome you to CSU.

ACT offers free services to help you succeed in math, science, writing, and the humanities. ACT tutoring methods facilitate students' ongoing development as independent learners and researchers, helping them build their confidence and skills as critical thinkers in their core courses, in courses across the curriculum, and in other professional and academic situations. Based on my military experience and current research on soldiers in academics, I have prepared my tutors to work with you to meet your expectations.

Please contact me via email at rendleman_eliot@columbusstate.edu or call 706-565-4135 if you have any further questions or would like to set up a meeting.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Eliot Rendleman".

Eliot Rendleman, PhD
Director, Academic Center for Tutoring
Woodall Hall